NYC Firefighters view artifacts recovered from the WTC site.

Ground Zero Museum Workshop is NYC's Newest & Most Moving Museum. Located just 8-minutes by taxi or subway ("E" Train) from Ground Zero, it features the well-known images of Gary Marlon Suson, an Honorary FDNY Battalion Chief & the Official Photographer at Ground Zero for the Uniformed Firefighters Association. 100 incredible stories of select images & artifacts are programmed into audio units that tell the personal stories of the "Recovery Period" at Ground Zero, accompanied by real sound effects from the Ground Zero Recovery Period. Visitors are allowed to pick up & hold certain remnants, such as glass & steel from the World Trade Center. The self-guided audio tours are narrated personally by Mr. Suson so guests can hear first-hand the stories behind the unique photographs. Audio tours also available in Italian, French & Spanish. 3-D installations, complete with dirt, will make you feel as if you "were there" when the images were taken and the museum is a NY State Non-Profit. Donations are often made to 8 different charities associated with 9/11 and the FDNY. Tours include an introduction by a trained guide, plus a tasteful yet emotional 12-minute video followed by the self-guided audio experience. Known by the media as the "Biggest Little Museum in New York" for its small size but enormous information capacity, the museum acts as an important educational tool while honoring those that lost their lives and those who struggled to recover them.

GZMW has fast become the first stop for visitors looking to learn more about 9/11 and the months that followed before they make the trip to the former World Trade Center site. No more than 25 people on a tour. Special discounts for neighborhood eateries, including 15% off at the famous "Little Pie Company" across from the museum.

Unsalaries, Official Ground Zero Photographer Gary Marlon Suson spent many months 'living' at the WTC site. The resulting collection, dubbed "Incredible" by Fox News Channel and "Extraordinary" by the NY Daily News, is sure to leave you feeling more connected to what happened on that fateful day in September, 2001.
